

CWEA WEBINAR:

It Could Happen to You: A Few Things You Should Know about Clean Water Act Lawsuits

As regulations tighten and the challenges of tough economic times affect agencies throughout California, concern about lawsuits from NGOs is increasing. Sign up today for CWEA's webinar on Clean Water Act Lawsuits. This webinar will provide you and your agency with valuable information on the legal basics around these kinds of suits, give you tips on what NGOs look for, what you can do to put your agency in the best position and how the proposed changes the SSO-WDR order could affect lawsuits. Bobbi Larson, Director of Legal & Regulatory Affairs for CASA and shareholder with Somach Simmons & Dunn, will present these critical legal topics.

You'll also learn from an agency that has been through a NGO lawsuit. Vickie Caulfield, Wastewater and Recycled Water Division Manager of Operations from El Dorado Irrigation District, will share their experience and provide some tips and helpful hints for other agencies to consider. Register now, space is limited.
